

Minutes of the Cowan Commercial Club

The Cowan Commercial Club met on Monday evening, March 4, 2019, at Cowan Center for the Arts with the following in attendance: Mary Bledsoe, Helen Brown, Mark Ledbetter, Ben Money, Jarod Pearson, and Kim Shelton.

The meeting was called to order at 6:15 p.m. (It was noted that this meeting is actually the monthly meeting for February that was rescheduled due to bad weather.)

The minutes from the previous meeting were accepted as presented.

The Treasurer was out due to a death in the family. The members shared their condolences.

Members also shared their condolences for fellow member Sam Lapp following the recent death of his father.

Mary proposed that we move forward with our flag project for Memorial Day. Kim is looking at different flags and prices that are available. The members agreed to have a proposal ready at the next meeting.

Our Valentine's Day giveaway did not go as planned due to a number of circumstances. We will work with the business to get a purple weekend together for the upcoming Mother's Day and Graduation/Commencement weekend.

We need to make our annual spring work day in the park a big success. We have schedule April 13th and will coordinate our efforts with Cowan Railroad Museum.

We will have some ribbon cuttings this season including the Bakery and the remodeled group of businesses on the downtown corner (Cricklewood, Simpler Times, Blushing Rose, and Foothills Graphics).

The next meeting of Cowan Commercial Club will be Monday evening, March 25, 2019.

With no further discussion, the meeting was adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,

L. Jarod Pearson, Secretary
